Design Concept

—THE CONCEPT of design is 'sustainability' and 'biophilia' which is an innate and genetically determined affinity of human beings with the natural world.

It is an exotic solution that combines natural materials and elements together into a modern urban environment.

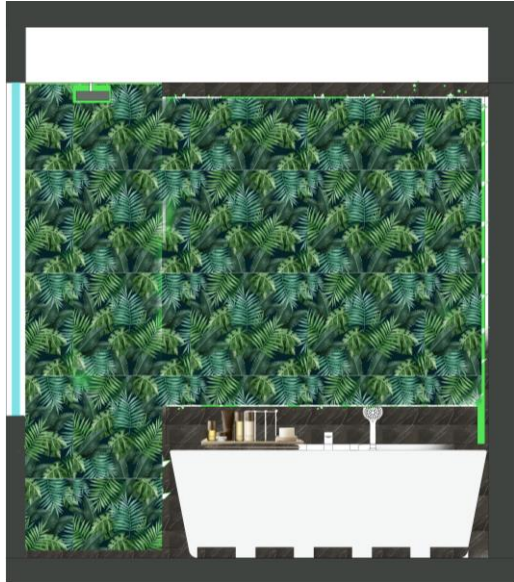

A hotel of a metropolis is faced with the negative aspects of life in a very big city :-stress ,noise and visual pollution ,a fast pace of life ,poor ecology ,a huge flow of a information

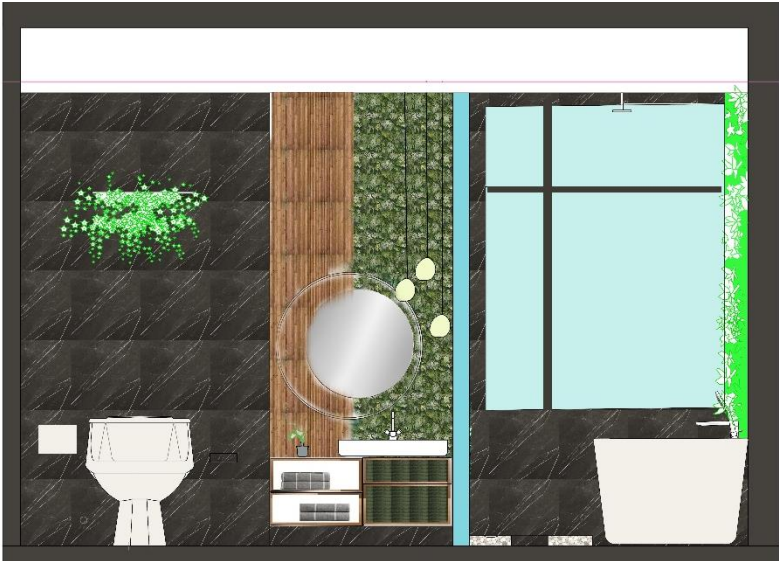

The main function of this place are relaxation and pacification
